VIII. Additional Information

a) Establishing Texas Residency

Under Texas State Law, an applicant or enrolled student is classified as a resident of Texas, a non resident, or a foreign student. Residency for admission and tuition purposes at a public college or university in Texas is different from residency for voting or taxing purposes.

- In order to qualify as a Texas resident, an individual must reside in Texas for 12 continuous months and establish domicile in Texas the 12 month prior to census date. An applicant or student who is claimed as a dependent on a parent's most recent federal tax return will be classified based on the parent's qualification for residency.

- International students eligible to establish legal domicile in Texas may also qualify for Texas residency status; see the Residency FAQ for details. For a listing of the visa types which allow you to domicile refer to the College for Texans Residency page.
- A student's residency classification is based on information from his/her admission application. If an applicant or student is classified as a nonresident and wishes to be reclassified as a resident, it is necessary to submit the Residency Questionnaire prior to census date of the semester in which they are seeking reclassification.
- The Residency Regulations for the State of Texas can be found at:
<http://www.collegefortexans.com/residency>
- Complete tuition/admission residency regulations for the State of Texas can be found at the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Website.
- Please send all residency documents for graduate students to the following address:

b) Students transferring from a U.S. high school, college, or university

- If you currently hold an F-1 or J-1 visa from a U.S. high school, college, or university, your immigration information stays at your current school until you notify your international advisor of the date you wish to transfer to UTPA.
- At that time you, in discussion with your current advisor, will determine a date for you to be released in SEVIS (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System). Please do not do so until you have been accepted by UTPA.
- When the release date arrives, UTPA will have access to your immigration records and issue a new I-20.
- Please notify our office of any address changes that may have occurred since you submitted your application for admission or our correspondence may not reach you.
